LIVING IN CHRIST'S VICTORY

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us (Romans 8:37).

Notice the underlined statement in the opening text. It says, “We are more than conquerors.” This suggests that our victory over the adversary is an old conclusion. Not only that, we’re already basking in the victory; it’s already a vital part of our existence.

There are those who ignorantly weep over the sufferings of Christ on the cross for us, lamenting what pain and humiliation He suffered for our sake. Christ suffered for us on the cross, but that suffering brought us eternal life and ushered us into everlasting victory. Rather than lament, we ought to celebrate that Jesus died for us; we ought to declare, every day, the victory of His death.

When the Lord Jesus appeared to His disciples after His resurrection, He announced, “All hail” (Matthew 28:9). This was a shout of victory. 1 John 3:8 says, “...For this purpose the Son of God manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.” The enemy has been defeated and his works are paralyzed. Jesus has already done it. He’s not trying to make us victorious today; we’re already victors in Him. We’re not trying to conquer; we’re already more than conquerors.

The reality is this: we’ve gone past the stage of celebrating our victory in Christ. We celebrated when we found out about His vicarious sacrifice on our behalf; now, we’re living out that victory. Being ‘more than a conqueror’ means you’ve passed conquering; you’re now living in the victory. It has become your daily experience.

Take, for example, an athlete who competes in the Olympics and wins the gold medal. At that instant, he joyously celebrates his victory with teammates, friends, and well-wishers. When he receives the prize money and starts spending or living off it, it’s no longer an expression of celebration; he’s now living in the victory he obtained. It’s become a vital experience. So, he’s gone past conquering or winning, he’s relishing the spoil or result of his victory, as it were. That’s our experience as being more than conquerors.

We’ve passed the level of celebrating the victory we have in Christ over sickness, poverty, defeat, and discouragement. We now enjoy and live in divine health, prosperity, victory, and dominion. We’re no longer trying to find out whether we have some issues with the devil; no! We’re superior to him. If you were lying on a sickbed, it’s time to get up, for you’ve been healed in Christ. The same goes for poverty; it shouldn’t take a hold of you anymore because Jesus took your place of poverty on the Cross and gave you prosperity (2 Corinthians 8:9). Your total salvation (i.e. your joy, health, peace, prosperity, progress, success, and victory) is the reason for the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ.

Live with this consciousness today. Live in the victory of Christ. Exercise your dominion over Satan, fear, sickness, discouragement, and lack. The day you were born again, you were born into total and continuous victory. Therefore, live each day of your life in victory over every situation. That’s the life of the believer. Victory is your birthright. Have the consciousness that you can’t be defeated or disadvantaged. Walk in the light of your victory over the world, the devil, and the circumstances of life! Have the mindset of a victor.

Absolutely Wonderful!

Sophia Colbeck's Praise Report

Seventeen-year-old Sophia Colbeck has a most inspiring tale to tell. It all began on January 15th 2016, a normal school day, while she was outside with her friends, enjoying lunch recess. "A student ran into me with so much force that the wind was knocked out of me. I blacked out while still standing. When I fell, I landed on my back and hit the back of my head on the ground," she recalls.

Rushed to the emergency room and checked immediately for any physical damages, Sophia received an all-clear and was soon sent home to resume her normal activities. A few months later, however, it was evident that something was wrong. "My back hurt a lot and my spine had curved outward at the top, more than was normal. I started noticing that I couldn't stand still in one place for more than a few minutes."

After a while, the condition became a major problem for this teenage girl, affecting every aspect of her life every minute of the day. She talks about how the condition influenced her life and dictated choices: "Standing, sitting, and sleeping were very uncomfortable because of the pain. Exercise was always a challenge because I couldn't straighten my back and doing some of the movements was excruciating. At the end of each day, my neck and upper back ached."

"Everyone around me had such a nice, straight spine, and I was super aware that mine was deformed... I couldn't carry myself confidently because I knew my body communicated shyness and lack of confidence."

"My posture was terrible. I could never hold myself properly, no matter how much I tried. My spine curved outwards so badly that my back was humped; it was extremely painful to attempt proper posturing. I was very embarrassed about how my back looked and I was self-conscious about it, so I always hid it. I never showed my back to my friends. I always covered my humped back with a high-neck top or by leaving my hair down."

"At school, I stayed constantly conscious of my sitting position at my desk. Everyone around me had such a nice, straight spine, and I was super aware that mine was deformed. When we needed to stand in class, my back would hurt. I couldn't carry myself confidently because I knew my body communicated shyness and lack of confidence. This pushed me to isolation. Having to deal with both the physical and mental aspects of this on a daily basis was hard, and it hurt my self-esteem.”

This situation continued for more than five years, but Sophia’s situation would change when she heard about the healing ministry of the man of God, Pastor Chris, and discovered that a special program was happening. “I heard about the Healing Streams Live Healing Services with Pastor Chris through my uncle, who is a pastor in Hungary. I knew I needed a miracle, so I participated with expectations,” she enthuses.

Participating in the Healing Services was a memorable experience for Sophia. She heard riveting testimonies that made an indelible impact, and the time of worship was sublime for her. She narrates: “The testimonies touched my soul. I witnessed God’s presence and I could also feel His power. I had this peace as the choir sang in worship.

“At some point, Pastor Chris said those watching should lay their hands on their family members for healing. My mom placed her hands on my back and my head. I fell under the power of the Holy Spirit and I collapsed onto the floor. Then, I felt a tingling in my spine and I knew, right then and there, that God was doing something for my spine. When I got up, I could immediately tell that something had changed with my spine.

“I stood up straight and tall. I looked in the mirror and saw that my spine was straight and I had excellent posture. I was speechless. My mom started crying when she saw my spine was straight. I immediately wrote my testimony and sent it. I thanked God because He’d literally just gifted me with a new, perfectly healthy spine.”

What a delightful episode for Sophia! In an instant, her story changed and her life has a new meaning. Now, she enjoys every activity as desired and goes about her daily life without fretting over her looks or how to hide her back. She attests to the awesome wonder that God has wrought in her life.

“Now, my life is absolutely wonderful!” she says. “I can stand and lift my hands to worship God without any pain. I can sit properly and sleep comfortably, and I can exercise well. I no longer need to cover my neck and back. I wear my hair in a bun with t-shirts and tank tops. It’s really amazing having terrific posture. It’s easy and normal to sit and do schoolwork now; my spine no longer hurts.

“I feel more confident, and that confidence grows more each and every day. When I consider my story, the Bible verse that comes to mind is Ephesians 3:20; ‘Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us’ (NIV). This miracle God gifted me with is more than I could’ve asked for. I’m still in awe and it makes me really excited to see what He’ll do in the future. Glory to God! Hallelujah!”

This miracle God gifted me with is more than I could’ve asked for. I’m still in awe and it makes me really excited to see what He’ll do in the future. Glory to God!

God has filled her mouth with laughter and Sophia now lives with new assurance, renewed purpose, and joy. “My family was very happy for me, and those in my youth group as well. My testimony was read during the Healing Services and Pastor Chris praised God. A family friend said that, when he heard my testimony, it gave him hope. This shows me that my testimony can speak to others, just as others’ testimonies spoke to me,” she says.

Expressing her heartfelt gratitude for her miracle, Sophia says, “God bless you, Pastor Chris. I am so grateful that God is using you to touch the lives of millions worldwide. I pray that the Lord continues to use the gift of healing He gave you to touch even more lives.”

The next Healing Streams Live Healing Services with Pastor Chris will hold from the 9th to 11th of July 2021. It will be a time for the manifestation of miracles. REVIVED BY THE POWER OF GOD

In January 2021, my pastor was admitted to the hospital's intensive care unit and put in an induced coma because his lungs were badly affected and he needed machines to help him breathe. I told my friend, who is a member of the Healing School Prayer Network, and she sent in a prayer request for him to the Prayer Network. After the next Global Prayer Session, she shared the prophecies with me and we had a note of victory. Within a week, my pastor started breathing on his own and the machines were taken out. He regained consciousness shortly after and was soon discharged. He is well and active now. Glory to God!

IT'S ALL GONE!

I was diabetic and hypertensive for more than 10 years. I had a lot of health challenges as a result, but what troubled me most was the weight loss. I also used to feel weak. In need of a miracle, I sent a prayer request to the Healing School Prayer Network. After some days, I felt stronger and started gaining weight. During my next medical appointment, the doctor did a full screening and several scans. He was so surprised and he said, "Lady, your pancreas is clean and clear. You're not even at risk of being diabetic." The high blood pressure, too, was gone! Glory to God! I thank Jesus for what He has done for me.

SPREAD FAITH CAMPAIGN IMPACT TESTIMONIES

Pastor Cyril (left) is a member of the Healing School Partnering Ministries. He has a passion for reaching people in his country, Zimbabwe, with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Over the years, he has recorded many testimonies of impacting lives with God's Word, especially through the Spread Faith with Healing to the Nations Magazine Campaign.

One such testimony is that of 27-year-old Munashe, who suffered from bipolar disorder for over 20 years. The drugs prescribed for his symptoms didn't help; rather, he was heavily affected by the side effects, which led to frequent hallucinations and generally made him unable to coordinate himself. Pastor Cyril ministered to Munashe by sharing testimonies from Healing to the Nations Magazine. Now, Munashe's health has been restored and he has soundness of mind and body. His mother testifies of the astounding improvement she has seen in her son since he was introduced to this life-changing material. Glory to God!

Exercises for Mental Health

The brain is the part of the central nervous system that coordinates the body's actions by receiving and interpreting sensory impulses and transmitting information to different parts of the body. Like every other part of the body, it needs to be cared for. Mental exercises are beneficial in many ways and will help improve memory retention and focus. Everyone can gain much from incorporating these exercises into their daily activities.

- MEDITATION:

Meditating on God's Word is vital for every Christian. This is more than just thinking about the Word. It entails pondering on the Word of God through the mind, talking the Word, and then shouting it. True meditation is creation; it's that time you give yourself to create pictures that align with God's will for your life. Your brain and mind work together to create mental images, and this process stretches your mental capacity and creative ability. Meditating properly will improve your memory, enhance sound judgment, and make you better organized.

- READING & STUDYING:

Reading and studying help to sharpen your mind. Reading regularly facilitates better information processing. Reading also improves comprehension and communication skills – verbal and nonverbal. Challenge yourself to read books and study new topics. This will help your brain to explore its capacity to imagine, think, and create.

- DANCING:

Dancing is an art that involves rhythmic steps or movements that usually express feelings of joy and excitement. It can also be a means of communication. Choreography can improve physical coordination and memory retention. This form of exercise is great for stimulating the brain's cognitive acuity.

- SOLVING PUZZLES:

An anagram game or a 1000-piece jigsaw puzzle is usually a lot of fun. The plus side of puzzles is that they enhance the brain's capacity for critical thinking and analysis. Also, skills such as connecting patterns and finding missing objects in games and puzzles can be directly transferred to real-life problem-solving.

- EATING HEALTHY:

Optimum brain function is dependent on proper nutrition. Foods rich in omega-3 fatty acids, such as fish and seafood, nuts and seeds, and plant oils are very good for your brain. Also, the very act of chewing activates several brain regions that are essential for improving mental performance, including the prefrontal cortex and hippocampus.

- LEARNING A NEW SKILL:

Learning a new skill is fun and interesting. Whether it's learning to cook or building a workshop by yourself, learning challenges your brain and will also help strengthen mental connections. Learning a new skill works multiple areas of your brain; your memory improves, you learn new movements, and you associate things differently.

- EXERCISING YOUR BODY:

Physical exercise is a great way of exercising your brain. By moving your body, you are training your brain to learn new muscle movements, estimate distance, and practice balance. The regular repetitive movements from exercising build muscle memory, which develops efficiency within the motor and memory systems. You can choose a variety of exercises to challenge you mentally.

A healthy brain makes for a healthier body. Exercise your brain to optimize mental health and improve proper function. It is never too late to start exercising your brain, so start now.

Faith's PROCLAMATIONS of Healing & Health

We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak (2 Corinthians 4:13).

God wants us to believe and live His Word. He wants us to use the Word; to take His Word and speak it. He didn't only give us His Word to quote, memorize, or recite; He gave us His Word so we can respond to it accordingly. You have to agree with the Word and speak it forth; that's what produces results.

Consider the glorious words the Psalmist penned for us in Psalm 23. Here, we find David affirming God's Word, making his personal faith-proclamations on the basis of God's Word. There's no need to gripe over lack or your seeming inabilities or weakness; there's no need to be afraid. There's no need to faint or lose heart over anything! Affirm the Word.

Take the Word of God and speak it! Don't say, "Lord, deliver me from evil"; rather, like David, say, "I fear no evil!" That means no matter the evil or adversities, you're triumphant over them because greater is He that's in you than he that's in the world (1 John 4:4). Whatever God says to you is for your benefit, and requires the right response. So, respond by affirming what He's already said concerning you in His Word.

CONFESSIONS

Christ is my hope of glory; therefore, I'll always be triumphant. I have peace on every side because the joy of the Lord is my strength. There is no weakness in my body. I will run and not be weary and I will walk without fainting.

The Lord is my Light and Salvation, of whom shall I fear? The Lord is the Strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid? Though a host encamp against me, my heart shall not fear. Though sickness come against me, I will not be shaken because I have the very life of God in me. I cannot die because Jesus is Lord over my body and my whole life.

The Name of Jesus is named upon me. The fullness of the Godhead dwells in me bodily, making me impregnable to sickness, disease, death, and the devil. I am daily renewed by the Spirit of God that dwells in me. I am conscious of my new life in Christ and walk daily in its reality. Hallelujah!

Dear Lord, I thank You for the perfection of my entire being and for the very nature of Christ, which has made my life an endless expression of Your glory, perfections, and excellence. This nature vitalizes my body through and through, causing me to continually live in health and strength. Everything about me produces life, and this life flows to all things connected to me. Amen.

The very life of God is active in me by the Holy Spirit. That life is evident in my spirit, soul, and body, causing me to live above the decadence and flawed systems of this world. No sickness or disease can attach itself to my body. I live in health, strength, and vitality always and I demonstrate the God-life everywhere I go.

Sicknesses, diseases, infirmities, and death are not options for me. I live the life of the Word and I only endorse what God's Word says about me in my life. Today, I speak life, health, joy, peace, and prosperity to my life. Nothing in me responds to death. Nothing in me responds to sickness or defeat. I am forever radiant, victorious, and full of glory!

My tongue is filled with God's Words of life and grace, and I speak them into my life today. By these words, I am cleansed of everything that is not consistent with the life that He has given me. The Word is manifested in me and it produces fruits of health, protection, and strength in me. By my words, I dominate the forces of life and nature, and I live in absolute victory always.

God's goodness and mercies abound in my life. Sicknesses, diseases, and infirmities have no place in my life. I am enjoying the good life in Christ. I am sound and my health is perfect. I am born of the incorruptible Word of God. I live every day of my life in perpetual victory and prosperity. Glory to God!
